This cemetery reading completed by Mrs. Romie Morrissett on May 29, 1971 Dates written as Feb 6, 1916-- are double rocks where only one person has been buried. Dates written 1883-19__ are those that have not been buried yet. Dates written with no dash means that only one date was on the stone. There were many unmarked graves and some Funeral Home markers that could not be read.

The Commercial Appeal, October 1, 1843. . "The census taker loves to tell of the time he rode up to the house of a certain farmer's widow and received the following in reply to his greeting: "Census taker, eh? Well, the parson told me you was comin' and if you say 'how much cloth, chickens, or soap' to me I'll set the dogs on you. They are none of your consarns or VanBuren's.
 I got five in the family and they are between five and a hundred years and that's all you'll get from me. Nofeller from Washington city is goin' tax my chickens to raise an army and get hisself made king of Ameriky. Now you git."

BISHOP, AUSTIN BIBLE RECORDS

Submitted by Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, 72 Woodhaven Drive, Jackson, Tennessee 38301. The records were taken from an old Bible, no back on it and all pages loose and torn, which was given to Mrs. Mitchell by a junk dealer who had found the Bible in a box of old papers. According to old pictures and letters found with the Bible, some of this family lived in Sommerville and Enville, Tennessee. If any descendants of this Austin-Bishop Family would like to have the Bible, Mrs. Mitchell will be happy to send it to them.

There was no Frontispiece, but the following was found in the New Testament Section: THE PARABLES OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST. ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN FRANKLIN. Copyright 1883.
